

Living With Wildlife Issues Sheet

References:

Smith M "Fence Out Native Foragers" in Tasmania Farmer newspaper, Winter 2007

A Guide to Living with Wildlife – How to Prevent and Control Wildlife Damage in Victoria, Department of Conservation and Environment (DCEV), Victoria, 1992

Bulinski J, & McArthur C,(2003) Identifying factors related to the severity of mammalian browsing damage in eucalypt plantations, Forest Ecology and Management 183 (2003) (p239-247)

Miller A, O'Reilly-Wapstra J, Potts B & McArthur C, Technical Report 195 TCFA Research into alternatives to the use of 1080: Manipulating seedling palatability for non-lethal browsing management, Cooperative Research Centre, April 2009

Tracey J, Bomford M, Hart Q, Saunders G & Sinclair R, (2007), Managing Bird Damage to Fruit and Other Horticultural Crops, Australian Government Bureau of Rural Sciences

Law M, (2005), Evaluation of non-1080 non-lethal techniques for commercial control of marsupial herbivores, Tasmanian Conservation Trust

Land for Wildlife Notes, How Wildlife Habitats Can Benefit Your Property, Department of Natural Resources and Environment Victoria, 2002

Farquhar D, 'Silvereyes' on DPIPWE website, accessed August 2009, document dated 2001 – no longer available on website.